

SETTING THE PACE

The jirnikisha boys of Japan travel all day, carrying a heavy passenger, at the speed of a horse;

In fact, few horses can maintain, day after day, the pace set by these boys.

And they do it on a diet of rice!

Truly, energy and endurance are to be found in the rich, creamy rice pudding served at CHILDS.

The rice pudding that brings the home of home and mother.

642—Sheffield After Coffee Set
Garden Edge, $20

SECRETS

THE secret of Ovington's reputation for always having excellent giftware almost as much in what they reject as it does in what they display.

OVINGTON'S

"The Gift Shop of Fifth Avenue"
Fifth Avenue at 39th Street

Square Feet Less

Expensive This Year

In many of the best and newest buildings floor space is slightly less in price than it was a year ago. This will be good news to those moving May First. It should also be good news to movers to know that they can arrange to have their coolers supplied with pure Knickerbocker Ice at the rate of 12c per day for the standard 5-gallon water cooler.

Knickerbocker's 19 gallons make and store ice all winter to meet the heavy demands of summer, so Knickerbocker can always take care of its customers.

ICE

Company

Sale Today (Tuesday)
AT 2 P. M. IN

SILO'S
Fifth Ave.
Art Galleries
40 E. 45th St.
S. W. COR.
W. 45th Ave.
W. 45th Ave.

JAMES P. SILD, Auctioneer
WILL NELL
ESTATE SALES
OF
ANTIQUE AND MODERN
FURNITURE
ALSO
OIL PAINTINGS

Courtesy
Personified:
The Peerless
Man.

PEERLESS

Phone
Main 572

Experience should teach something

Our eighteen years in building automobiles have taught us that the Knight engine is worth to our customers much more than the double cost to us to build it compared with a poppet-valve of the same size.

That is why we build more of them every year. Ask us to mail you a copy of our booklet, "Why We Believe in the Knight Motor."

R & V MOTOR CO.
East Moline, Illinois

J. M. RYAN, Eastern Representative
Gotham Nat'l Bank Bldg., 1619 Broadway
Tel. Columbia 1233

WATERLOW AND SONS, LTD., of London, engravers and printers of bank notes,
bonds, etc., are prepared to receive applications for the post of manager of their bank note factory. Applicants must be thoroughly experienced in all work appertaining to the highest class of production of bank notes, bonds, etc. Accurate position and substantial remuneration to highly qualified man. Applications to be addressed to Managing Directors, Waterlow and Sons, Ltd., Great Winchester Street, London, England.

SILVER KILLED IN MOTOR

AND OTHER MISHAPS

Boy Crushed by Taxicab in

Avoiding Collision at 5th

Avenue and 110th St.

FATHER JUST ESCAPES

Student Cycling on Man-

hattan Bridge Loses Life

When Run Into.

TROLLEYS ON RAMPAGE

Horse Steps on Child, Causing

Death, and Boy Stealing

Ride Is Run Over.

Six persons are dead and many are suffering from injuries in consequence of trolley car, motor and other vehicular accidents that occurred yesterday and last night in and near New York.

Herbert E. 5 years old, of 1570 Madison avenue, was crushed to death and his father, Joseph, suffered a sprained ankle last night when a taxicab stopped suddenly at Fifth avenue and 110th street and immediately began to back up at top speed.

Father and son were crossing the street at the time, hand in hand. The taxicab, driven by Murray Meyers, 22, of 62 East 110th street, halted to prevent striking an automobile, the police said. As it backed up it threw Mr. E. and his son to the roadway. Meyers was arrested on a homicide charge.

Robert Buyer, 7, of 227 West 122d street, was playing ball in front of his home last night when an automobile driven by William Long, 28, of 244 West 122d street, ran over him. The boy died of internal injuries as Long was taking him to Knickerbocker Hospital. Long was arrested on a charge of homicide.

Girl Trampled by Horse.

Adriana Estepano, 6, of 221 East Twenty-eighth street, became confused when crossing Second avenue near Twenty-eighth street and was run over by a delivery wagon drawn by a horse. The horse trampled her when he knocked her to the pavement, and one of the wheels of the wagon passed over her body. She died as she was being taken to Bellevue Hospital. Samuel Janiker, 25, of 216 Sixth street, the driver, was arrested on a charge of homicide and held in $2,500 bail for a hearing tomorrow.

A runaway horse, drawing a laundry wagon ran against Michael McTigue, 22, of 100 West 122d street, near 122d street and Avenue A, and was killed by a delivery wagon drawn by a horse. The horse trampled her when he knocked her to the pavement, and one of the wheels of the wagon passed over her body. She died as she was being taken to Bellevue Hospital. Samuel Janiker, 25, of 216 Sixth street, the driver, was arrested on a charge of homicide and held in $2,500 bail for a hearing tomorrow.

Edward Koch, 9, of 249 East Forty-first street, fell from the rear of a motor truck on which he was standing when the truck was struck by a delivery wagon drawn by a horse. The horse trampled her when he knocked her to the pavement, and one of the wheels of the wagon passed over her body. She died as she was being taken to Bellevue Hospital. Samuel Janiker, 25, of 216 Sixth street, the driver, was arrested on a charge of homicide and held in $2,500 bail for a hearing tomorrow.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

George Marx, 16, of 196 Lefferts avenue, Brooklyn, a high school student, was riding on a bicycle across the Manhattan Bridge when a motor truck crashed into the cycle, throwing him to the roadway and inflicting injuries that caused his death at the Brooklyn Hospital last night.

150 Join Pistol Class

to Repulse Burglars

THE first class in revolver practice instruction for employees of banks, trust companies and firms handling large sums of money will meet between 1 and 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the pistol range at Governors Island.

More than 150 persons have already responded to the army's offer to give this instruction, including one woman, Miss Bessie M. Reiss, treasurer of the Nutlock Corporation, 30 Church street. Army officers will be in charge at the range.

DEATH DISCLOSES

BETROTHED WED

Wife in Cincinnati Disputes

Claim Made by Brook## lyn Woman.

Dispatches from Cincinnati last night stated that Aaron C. Joseph would leave at once for New York to investigate the statement of Mrs. Rosa Sackman of 240 East Fifth street, Brooklyn, that she was engaged to his father, Albert C. Joseph, a traveling salesman who was found dead Sunday in his bed in the Hotel Lenox in West Forty-fourth street.

Joseph's son declared in Cincinnati last night there could be no truth in the statement, as his father has a wife and two children in the Ohio city. He explained that he believed some confusion had arisen as a result of a similarity of names. He said at the time that he thought he would find his father alive, but Mrs. Sackman's father, Joseph A. Hoffman, an undertaker, said last night that the body had been identified positively and that he had slipped it to Cincinnati.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company, manufacturers of brass goods.

Mrs. Sackman, who lives with her father, said again last night that she was engaged to marry Joseph. No date had been set for the wedding, she said. She and her father said that Saturday was Joseph's forty-sixth birthday and that he worked that night to the Hoffman home, where a party was held in his honor. He returned to Manhattan, retired about midnight and died in his sleep. He was employed as a traveling salesman by the Joseph J. Nichols Company